The registered office is located in the Brussels-Capital Region.

It may be transferred to any other location in Belgium by decision of the administrative body, and in accordance with the language legislation in force, provided that such a transfer does not require a change in the language of the articles of association by virtue of the applicable language regulations.

This term may be extended for successive periods of up to five (5) years by a decision of the general meeting taken under the conditions of quorum and majority indicated in the following paragraphs.

The general meeting may only validly deliberate and decide on the extension of the term of the Company if those attending the meeting represent at least half of the capital. If this condition is not met, a new convening will be necessary and the second general meeting will validly deliberate, regardless of the portion of the capital represented by the shareholders present or represented. The resolution to extend the term of the Company is validly adopted by unanimity of the validly cast votes.

TITLE 2 – CAPITAL

Article 6 – COMPANY CAPITAL

The capital is set at four hundred and thirteen million two hundred and seventy-six thousand eight hundred and forty euros and twelve cents (EUR 413,276,840.12). It is represented by twenty-eight million four hundred and forty-five thousand nine hundred and seventy-one (28,445,971) shares with voting rights, without mention of nominal value, each representing an equal part of the capital.

Article 7 – NATURE OF THE SHARES

All shares are registered; if applicable, they are given a serial number.

The shares are represented by an entry in the register of registered shares which contains the particulars prescribed by the Companies and associations Code. Shareholders may consult this register. Certificates evidencing these entries may be issued to shareholders.

The shares are indivisible with respect to the Company. The co-owners must be represented in relation to the Company by one person only; as long as this clause is not complied with, the rights relating to these shares shall be suspended.

If the assignees cannot agree, the competent judge may, at the request of the most diligent party, appoint a provisional administrator who shall exercise the rights concerned in the interest of all the assignees. If the share is owned by bare owners and usufructuaries, all rights relating thereto, including voting rights, shall be exercised by the usufructuaries.

Article 8 – SUBSCRIPTION – TRANSFER OF SHARES

Only eligible investors within the meaning of the Law of 19 April 2014 and of the FIIS RD/GVBF KB (the “Eligible Investors”) may subscribe for, acquire or hold securities issued by the Company.

Any investor who subscribes for or acquires shares of the Company formally confirms in writing to the Company that he/she is an Eligible Investor and undertakes, with respect to the Company, to transfer the shares concerned only to a purchaser which in turn formally confirms in writing to the Company that it is an Eligible Investor and undertakes to request the same confirmation from the subsequent purchaser.

In the event of a transfer of shares, the Company will not register the transfer in the share register if it finds that the transferee is not an Eligible Investor.

If the Company becomes aware that the shares are held by an investor who is not an Eligible Investor, the Company will suspend voting and dividend rights in respect of those shares.

These principles apply to all shares of the Company, as well as to any other securities that may be issued by the Company.

No more than one single and sole investor may be a shareholder of the Company. Any transfer of shares in the Company is subject to the approval of the administrative body, which will oppose the transfer to the extent that it would result in the Company having more than one shareholder.

TITLE 3 – ADMINISTRATION – CONTROL

Article 9 – COMPOSITION OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE BODY

The Company shall be administered at the discretion of the general meeting:

- either by a sole director, appointed for an indefinite period;
- or by a board of directors composed of at least the minimum number of members required by law, appointed for a maximum of six years.

In the present articles of association, the terms “administrative body” refers either to the sole director, or to the board of directors.

The general meeting may terminate the mandate of any director at any time, with immediate effect and without cause.

Resigning directors are eligible for re-election.

The mandate of resigning directors who are not re-elected shall expire immediately after the general meeting which carried out the re-election.

A director shall continue to serve after resignation until a replacement has been found after a reasonable period.

When the Company is managed by a board of directors and a vacancy occurs before the end of a director's mandate, the remaining directors have the right to co-opt a new director. The first subsequent general meeting must confirm the co-opted director's mandate. In case of confirmation, the co-opted director shall complete the mandate of his/her predecessor, unless the general meeting decides otherwise. In the absence of confirmation, the mandate of the co-opted director shall end after the general meeting, without prejudice to the regularity of the composition of the administrative body until that date.

The board of directors may appoint a chairperson from among the directors. In the absence of such an appointment or in the absence of the chairperson, the meeting shall be chaired by the director appointed by the board of directors from among the directors present or, failing that, by the oldest director.

The board of directors may appoint one or more observers to attend all or part of the meetings of the board of directors, in accordance with the arrangements to be decided by the board of directors.

Article 10 – CONVENING NOTICE

A meeting of the board of directors shall be convened by its chairperson or by two directors at least five (5) days (or, in case of urgency, at least two (2) days) before the date scheduled for the meeting, unless all the directors waive such notice. Notices of meetings shall be validly given by ordinary mail or by e-mail.

Each convening notice must also be submitted to the sole shareholder within the same period.

Any director who attends or is represented at a board meeting shall be deemed to have been duly convened.

Article 11 – MEETINGS – PROXIES

The meetings of the board of directors shall be held in Belgium or abroad, at the place indicated in the notice of convening.

Any director may give a proxy to another director by any written means bearing his/her signature, to represent him/her at a specific meeting of the board of directors and to vote on his/her behalf. A director may represent several of his/her colleagues and cast, in addition to his/her own vote, as many votes as he/she has received proxies.

Article 12 – DELIBERATIONS – ATTENDANCE QUORUM

Except in cases of force majeure, a board of directors may only validly deliberate and decide if at least half of the directors are present or represented. If this condition is not met, a new meeting may be convened, which shall deliberate and validly decide on the items on the agenda of the previous meeting provided that at least two (2) directors are present.

Any director may participate in the deliberations of a board of directors and vote through any means of telecommunication (e.g. telephone or video conference) that permits direct, simultaneous and continuous communication between the participants. Directors who participate in a meeting of the board of directors in this manner are deemed to be present at the place where the meeting is held for the purposes of quorum and majority requirements.

The board of directors may draw up terms of reference.

Article 13 – MAJORITIES – WRITTEN DECISIONS

Without prejudice to Article 15, § 1, second indent of the articles of association, any decision of the board of directors shall be taken by a simple majority of the votes of the directors present or represented. Abstentions shall not be taken into account. In the event of a tie, the chairperson's vote shall be decisive, except where there are only two (2) directors on the board of directors, in which case the proposal shall be rejected in the event of a tie.

Decisions of the board of directors may be taken by unanimous written decision of all directors.

Article 14 – MINUTES OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE BODY

The decisions of the board of directors shall be recorded in minutes signed by at least two directors, including the chairperson, as well as all directors who so wish. The decisions of the sole director shall be signed by him/her.

These minutes are recorded in a special register.

Delegations, notices and votes given in writing or by any other means of communication having a physical medium shall be annexed thereto. All copies and extracts of the minutes shall be validly signed by the sole director or a director, by a person in charge of the day-to-day management or by a person expressly authorised by the board.

Article 15 – POWER OF MANAGEMENT – DAY-TO-DAY MANAGEMENT – SPECIAL POWERS

The administrative body is vested with the broadest powers to perform all acts necessary or useful for the realisation of the corporate purpose of the Company, with the exception of those reserved by law or by the articles of association to the general meeting.

The general meeting may determine certain reserved matters, for which the decisions of the board of directors shall be subject to the prior approval of the general meeting.

§ 2. Day-to-day management

The administrative body may delegate the day-to-day management of the Company to one or more natural or legal persons. Article 16 – REPRESENTATION OF THE COMPANY

All acts which bind the Company, including in justice and in all acts, are valid if signed:

- either by the sole director or by two directors, acting jointly ;
- or, within the limits of the day-to-day management, by the person(s) responsible for day-to-day management, acting individually;
- or by special proxyholders, within the limits of their mandate.

The preceding indents are without prejudice to the general representative power of the board of directors acting as a college.

Article 17 – REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS

The mandate of a director shall not be remunerated unless otherwise decided by the general meeting.

Directors shall be compensated for normal and justified expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The expenses will be charged to the general expenses account.

Article 18 – CONTROL OF THE COMPANY

Insofar as the Company is legally obliged to do so, the audit of the financial situation of the Company, the annual accounts and the regularity of the transactions to be recorded in the annual accounts with regard to the Companies and associations Code and these articles of association, must be entrusted to one or more auditors, appointed by the general meeting from among the members of the Institute for Company Auditors and approved by the FSMA.

Auditors are appointed for a renewable term of three years.

TITLE 4 – GENERAL MEETING

Article 19 – ORDINARY GENERAL MEETING – EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

The ordinary general meeting shall be held on 15 June at 9 a.m.

If this day is a public holiday, the general meeting is moved to the next working day. If there is only one shareholder, it approves the annual accounts on that date.

An extraordinary general meeting may be convened whenever the interests of the Company so require. general meetings are held at the registered office of the Company or at any other place, in Belgium or abroad, indicated in the notice of convening. Where the Company has only one shareholder, it shall exercise the powers vested in the general meeting.

Article 20 – CONVENING NOTICE

Article 21 – ADMISSION TO THE GENERAL MEETING

In order to be admitted to the general meeting and, for shareholders, to exercise the voting right, a holder of securities must meet the following conditions:

- the holder of registered securities must be registered as such in the register of registered securities for his/her class of securities;

- the rights attached to the securities of the holder of the securities cannot be suspended; if only the voting right is suspended, he/she can still participate in the general meeting without being able to vote.

Holders of non-voting shares, non-voting profit shares, convertible bonds, subscription rights or certificates issued in collaboration with the Company may attend the general meeting in an advisory capacity, if they have carried out the formalities prescribed in the preceding indents.

Article 22 – PROXY

Any shareholder may be represented at the general meeting by a proxyholder, whether or not a shareholder. Proxies must be signed (including digitally in accordance with article 8.1, 2° and/or 8.1, 3° of the Civil Code) and must be communicated by ordinary mail, e-mail or by any other means mentioned in article 2281 of the Old Civil Code. They shall be deposited on the desk of the meeting on the date of the meeting, unless the administrative body requires them to be deposited three (3) working days before the general meeting at the place indicated in the notice of convening.

Article 23 – OFFICE – ATTENDANCE LIST

General meetings shall be chaired by the sole director or the chairperson of the board of directors or, in his/her absence, by a director appointed by the meeting or, if no director is present, by the shareholder with the greatest number of voting rights or, in the event of parity, by the oldest shareholder. If the number of persons present so requires, the chairperson shall choose a secretary and, on the proposal of the chairperson of the meeting, the meeting shall choose two vote-takers.

An attendance list shall be kept at each general meeting, which shall state the last name, first name(s) and address or name and registered office of the shareholders and the number of shares they hold.

Article 24 – DELIBERATION – ATTENDANCE QUORUM

No meeting may deliberate on a matter which is not announced on the agenda, unless all shares are present or represented and the deliberation is approved by a unanimous vote.

The general meeting may validly deliberate, regardless of the number of shares present and represented, except in cases where the law requires a certain quorum to be present.

The administrative body may provide for the possibility to participate remotely in the general meeting through an electronic means of communication (including telephone or video conference) made available by the Company. For the purposes of quorum and majority requirements, security holders who participate in the general meeting in this manner shall be deemed to be present at the place where the general meeting is held. The administrative body shall determine the means of communication used, as well as the manner of use and the verification of the quality and identity of the participants. The electronic means of communication must at least enable the holders of securities who participate in the general meeting in this way to take direct, simultaneous and continuous cognisance of the discussions in the meeting and, as far as the shareholders are concerned, to exercise their voting rights on all the items on which the meeting is called upon to decide. The electronic means of communication must also enable the holders of securities to participate in the deliberations and to exercise their right to ask questions.

Article 25 – VOTING RIGHTS

Each share gives the right to one (1) vote.

Each shareholder may vote remotely, by correspondence or electronically by means of a form made available by the administrative body, which shall contain at least the following information (i) the identity of the shareholder, (ii) the number of votes cast, (iii) the nature of the shares, (iv) the agenda of the meeting and the proposals for decisions, (v) the time limit within which the form must be received by the Company, (vi) the signature of the shareholder and (vii) for each decision, the direction of the shareholder's vote ("yes", "no" or "abstention"). Article 28 – MINUTES

The decisions of the general meeting shall be recorded in minutes which shall be signed by the chairperson, the members of the office and the shareholders who so request. Proxies shall be attached to the minutes of the general meeting for which they were given. The minutes shall be inserted in a special register. Copies and extracts of the minutes shall be validly signed by the sole director, by the chairperson of the board of directors, a managing director or two directors.

TITLE 5 – FINANCIAL YEAR – PROFIT ALLOCATION

Article 29 – FINANCIAL YEAR

The financial year shall begin on the first (1st) of January and end on the thirty-first (31) of December of each year.

Article 30 – DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS

The net annual profit is determined in accordance with the legal provisions.

For as long as required by law, a deduction of at least five (5) per cent (%) shall be made annually from the net profits of the Company to be used to build up a reserve fund. This deduction shall cease to be mandatory when the reserve fund reaches one tenth (10%) of the capital.

Under the conditions of article 22 of the FIIS RD/GVBF KB, the Company must distribute, by way of remuneration of the capital, an amount corresponding at least to the positive difference between the following amounts: (a) eighty percent (80%) of the amount determined in accordance with the table set out in Chapter III of Annex A to the FIIS RD/GVBF KB; and (b) the net decrease, in the course of the same financial year, of the Company's indebtedness.

On the proposal of the administrative body and in accordance with the FIIS RD/GVBF KB, the general meeting decides on the allocation of the remaining net profits.

The payment of dividends declared by the general meeting shall be made at the times and places designated by the general meeting or by the administrative body.

Article 31 – CALCULATION OF THE NET ASSET VALUE PER SHARE

In accordance with the FIIS RD/GVBF KB, the net asset value per share of the Company shall be determined at the end of each accounting year by the administrative body or by any agent appointed for this purpose by the administrative body. The net asset value per share shall be expressed in euro.

The net asset value will be determined by dividing the consolidated net assets of the Company, after deduction of minority interests or, in the absence of consolidation, the net assets at the statutory level, by the number of shares issued by the Company, after deduction of own shares held, if any, at the consolidated level.

The net asset value per share may be rounded up or down to the nearest one hundredth of a euro unit, as the administrative body or its appointed agent shall decide.

If a substantial change occurs as a result of the calculation of the net asset value of the Company's shares and it concerns a substantial part of the Company's assets or property rights, the administrative body or its appointed agent may, in order to safeguard the interests of the shareholders and the Company, cancel the first calculation and make a second calculation.

For the avoidance of doubt, the stipulations for the purpose of determining the net asset value per share are not intended to affect the accounting or legal treatment of the Company's assets and liabilities or the shares issued by the Company.

The net asset value per share is available at the Company's registered office.

The administrative body may temporarily suspend the calculation of the net asset value per share of the Company:

- where there is a situation which, in the opinion of the administrative body, constitutes an emergency and as a result of which the disposal or valuation of the assets held by the Company would be impracticable; or*
- where, as a result of political, economic, military or monetary circumstances or any other circumstances beyond the control, responsibility or power of the administrative body, or as a result of financial market conditions, a disposal of the Company's assets would not be reasonably practicable without materially affecting and prejudicing the interests of the shareholders or if, in the opinion of the administrative body, a fair price could not be determined for the Company's assets; or*
- if for any other reason the prices of the assets held by the Company cannot be quickly and accurately determined; or*
- during any period in which the net asset value of any underlying investment vehicle in which the Company has invested cannot be accurately determined, or if the calculation of the net asset value of an underlying investment vehicle is suspended; or*

- following the publication of a notice of convening for a general meeting to decide on the winding up of the Company.

Article 32 – PAYMENT OF INTERIM DIVIDENDS

The administrative body is authorised, under its own responsibility and in accordance with the legal provisions, to decide on the payment of interim dividends.
